Frauen helfen Frauen Wetterau (Women helping women Wetterau)

The objective of the Women helping Women association in Wetterau is to support women who are threatened or affected by violence, to support them and provide them with a refuge-area.

For many years, the association has maintained a women's shelter as well as a consultation and intervention centre.

Despite government subsidies, the association relies on donations.

At home

Are you or your children experiencing humiliation, insult, defamation, threats, violence?

Do not tolerate this!

The Protection Against Violence Act has been in force since 1 January 2002.

This act fortifies your rights and options for protection.

The counselling centre informs you about how this works, what you can do and what you need to look out for.

The Counselling Center

We counsel and support women who are looking for help in ending a violent situation.

We support you in exercising your rights based on the Protection against Violence Act. This Act regulates that it is no longer the victims of violence, but rather the aggressor, who have leave the residence

We counsel all women, regardless of their origin and residential status.

We counsel and assist regardless of denomination and free of charge.

We treat all information confidential and also counsel anonymously, if requested.
